

Letters and Answers.

BY LAURA JEAN LIBBEY.

She's Homely.

"Dear Miss Libbey: Since you have been so kind in helping girls who have admirers, I wish you would help one who has none. I am 20 years old and have many girl friends who are pretty and popular and who see that I get invitations to all of the dances they attend. As I am homely, I have my program filled only through the efforts of my girl friends. Now I would like to know whether it is fair to the boys to have me pushed upon them. Would you give up going to dances and attend to something else if you were I?"

"LONELY."

Are you a good dancer, Lonely? A girl who is a good dancer usually has little trouble in having her program filled. Why not take a few lessons at some high grade dancing school near your home? Don't forget that many homely girls are loved sincerely for their qualities of heart and mind. Be cheerful and sociable.