Lightning Rams Nail Into Tooth

BERKELEY SPRINGS, W. Va. (UP)—Workman Heber Hobday said he was holding a nail in his mouth when a bolt of lightning struck the back porch of a home where he was working and it cost him a tooth.

He said the bolt banged the nail into his tooth, breaking the tooth. He was not otherwise injured.